The Empty Chair

We gather here, a class once more,
To reminiscence, like years before.
Upon the days and joys we knew,
Before our school-aged time was through.
Yet, as we meet, with memories dear,
We think of those, who are not here. . .
Our friends and classmates, passed away,
To the beyond, above the fray.

They sit at desks, resting on clouds,
Surrounded by ancestral crowds.
Where they shall rest for eternity,
Our schoolmates in fraternity.
They'll be with us—we'll always care,
Until the day, we join them there.
Within the halls of memories past,
Where friendships formed will always last.

Until that hour, we join in grace,
An empty chair, we will here place.
In honor of the life-long bond,
We forged with those, now passed beyond.
The friends with whom we learned life's truth,
Whose bonds existed from our youth.
And shall remain forever near,
When next we gather, year to year.
