AN ALMA MATER ALMANAC

September Hath 30 days: The various color'd apples glow,
Upon the drowsy, bending bough....

The planting of the crops and the sewing of the seeds.....

October Hath 31 days: See the enamel'd drooping trees, Shedding their leaves at every breeze.

A herd of Crosby Football Players began their seasonal stampede

↘ Frost on the pumpkins, witches on their brooms, and Crosby spooks on the prowl

November Hath 30 days: The summer's past! - and all its bloom
Is giving way to winter's gloom....

Barnyard dance was called by Paul Trembly and his victrola and the "do-si-doers" donated nearly two hundred dollars to the U. S. F.

Qualified citizens participated in the Town Meeting that resulted in Ninth Grade Officer nominations.

➤ Football herd was slaughtered by South but revived in time to stampede St. Joe across the field and down the hill to their own corral.

December Hath 31 days: See, bursting from the northern skies, November's fierce successor rise.....

↙ Town Officials Rick, Herb, Heidi, Mary and Cindy were elected . . . on new-fangled voting boxes.

A chance to "swing" and "reel" at the Old Fashion Christmas Ho-down.

Loaded burlap sacks, full of dolls, teddy bears, and games were delivered to the City's needy children by our News Staff.

A standing ovation and wet eyes during the Farewell Assembly for our Vice Principal, Mr. Carroll Hickey.

Home for a time of "Peace on Earth" and turkey on the table.

January Hath 31 days: See the farmer shivering with cold
Driving his flocks and herd to fold.

A new Vice Principal for our Happy Hill.

Chow time schedules were rearranged, causing soured milk, wilted crops, and unhappy Ninth Graders.

Victory for the Girls Volley Ball Team..... one, two, three, four, give a cheer for the barnyard score.

February Hath 28 days: Bleak o'er the plains the winds do blow, Hurls round and round the power'd snow.

Annual Sweetheart Dance with its continuously interrupted "round-up" movements.

Country Hicks met City Slickers as the first half of the class made the trail drive to New York City.

Second installment of the town and country trip - Green Acres met Park Avenue.

PHS1968.com
March Hath 31 days: Bleak winds assault us all around;
Dances aloft or skims the ground.

Barnyard hands were undefeated on the basketball courts.

Village Superintendent had trouble with calendars, weather reports, ice and snow . . . Youngin's went home to slide and ski down snowy pasture hills.

Crop failure for the U. S. F.

Barnstorming Globetrotters trampled the foiled faculty.

April Hath 30 days: Now cast around thy raptured eyes,
And see the lovely spring arise.

Village fathers decided to open the school house doors on Saturdays . . . barnyard bouncers appeared on the Gym apparatus.

Voluptuous milk-maids from the south forty made their debut at the big rally . . . South stampeded into its stall as the Crosby Champions claimed their first place ribbon.

Our southern acreage fertilized by fire.

"Spring Sprang" with fierce furies . . . nearly buried our budding dance festivities with snow.

May Hath 31 days: Enraptured Spring returns again,
The farmer plants his golden grain.

For the vegetarian: Barley, beans, broccoli, cabbage, carrots, peppers and spinach can be planted this month.

Pick your mayflowers now.

Farmyard fillies training time . . . to select those who will cheer next year's barnyard boys on.

June Hath 30 days: See the pigmy corn in rows,
And farmers busy with their hoes.

Time to decide what row to hoe next year and check the seasonal harvest of "A's",
"B's", "C's", and "D's".

An end to our sojourn at Crosby Acres, with the final and grand Barnyard Ball followed the next morning by Mr. Gauvreau's surveyance of the gathered crops and presentation of the Green Graduate Ribbons.

RURAL REVELATIONS RESULT IN PASTORAL PROPHECY

Our beaming, bouncing, bevy of Barnyard Beauties will transend to The twinkled-toed, transplanted, Taconic team taunters.

The stupendous, superstitious,
sedated Student Council Will succeed to the starless, stero-typed, stiff-necked,
Senate.

A hob-nobbing, horde of hopeless
Homerom Reps. will hasten
To the hit-or-miss, hectic, hibernating House of Reps.

The dandy, doodling, Dancing Decorators will assend to Aggressive, asthetic, affluent, agrarian artists.

Our presently, perfectly-planned performers will pass to Persistant, potent, professional players.

The fabulous, funky, faculty forum will forge forward Fiercely to functional, frustrating, futile feats.

Our Class Officers, overpowering obstreperous obstacles will Oftentimes oppress officious, outdated oracles.

The naturally, nutty, neurotic Ninth Grade will Metamorphosize into master - minded, mature, many-sided
Midgets moving to Taconic.

We wiley workers who wholeheartedly constructed candid comic comedy continuously calculated the timely tongue twisters, always attempting aboveboard annecdotes and honestly hoping to horrify none.

THE CALL OF CROSBY ACRES

Crosby Acres is the place to be,
Green and White are the colors to see,
Yells and cheers heard from far and wide,
When we're always rooting for our side.

. Yellow Slips

. Student Skip

Up here is where we've had to stay,
And after years we are on our way,
Just think of all the things we've done,
Bad or good we've all had a lota fun.

. Card Reports

. and Sports

GOOD-BYE CROSBY, TACONIC HERE WE COME!
