The class of 1969 is a very lucky class, we are told. We are a part of a generation of Americans that, for the most part, has never been really hungry, never been terribly cold, never had to worry about war on our own soil. We have been blessed with an affluence that gives us just enough leisure time to wonder, if we wonder, why others have not been blessed with this same affluence. We have been the silent witnesses of riots, assassinations, and unjust wars. We have seen the slow decay of the standard values that most of our parents and their parents built their lives on. We have looked on all of this, and, as children, could only be muddled by it. The world has left its brand on our generation, though it cannot be seen. We share a common skepticism; we are non-believers who are never absolutely sure where truth or reality lies.

But oddly enough, even though touched by this cynicism, we remain children in a sense. We also share a common hope that perhaps we have been given a chance to make our world a "better place." Surely, the road has been paved for us through time; but never before has a spirit so enveloped a generation that it can be felt from Tokyo to Chicago to Prague. We only differ in our methods of attaining this "betterment."

As one popular song has it, "you've got to start it individually." Understanding of other men can only be based on accepting their equality with yourself and respecting their rights as you value your own. These are words that are usually associated with idealistic youth; adults have outgrown them, perhaps rightfully so, because, though lovely, they are impractical and, pessimistically viewed, unreachable.

Brotherhood is probably the most popular of these intangibles in our time. From it flows the best of man's nature — love and peace; but brotherhood is also one of those Utopian concepts. It is unfortunately inherent to man's nature that he can ever attain perfection. There will never exist a world where man can dwell with man without greed or war or hate. Yet, we must not adopt an "all or nothing" philosophy. We must use that perfection as a goal. We must go forth to seek Tennyson's "newer world", conscious of the fact that we will probably never reach it, but with the hope that we may come close. It is in this spirit that we, the class of 1969, dedicate our yearbook, and ourselves, to BROTHERHOOD.

I dream of things that never were and say, why not?

G. B. Shaw

people

If we look at the essence of P.H.S., the things which give it character and make it come alive, we must look at its students. P.H.S. is not a building or a classroom or a book. It is the people who make up the school, people of all sizes, people laughing and crying and cheering, people studying and talking, intellectuals, athletes, mechanics, artists, scientists, people winning and people losing, people with hopes and ambitions. These people who are so very different from one another now combine to make up the society of P.H.S.; they will soon leave the haven of school to become integrated into the family of man and the society of the world.

At a time when the word "mass" has come to dominate everything from the manufacturing industry to the high school complex, when conformity is being confused with non-conformity and individuality has been lost in the shuffle, it is good to remember that each person is an individual with his own talents and his own ambitions. It is this uniqueness of the individual that gives life its content and direction and enhances its meaning.

Administration

Mr. Lawrence J. Murphy

For the past two years, Mr. Lawrence J. Murphy has served as the capable and efficient principal of P.H.S. Despite the difficulties caused by double sessions he has been able to maintain the school's high standards in both academics and athletics.

From congratulating Merit Scholars and Honor Society members, to faithfully cheering at football and basketball games, Mr. Murphy has constantly worked to give every student at P.H.S. the greatest opportunities to learn, to participate, and to grow. The class of 1969 owes him its deepest thanks and appreciation.

A New Mood in the English Staff, P. M.: Edwin Stevens, Miss Maryanne Downing, Miss Veronica Collins, Miss Dolores Zieminski, Mrs. Helen Forsgard, Louis Roberts.

The new attitudes and ideas of 1968 have found their way into the English classes of P.H.S. More than ever before they are becoming forums for serious and lively discussions of an unpredictable range of subjects. Students and teachers alike are learning that informal debate cannot only stimulate people into new ideas but also coexist successfully with the more traditional aspects of English. The study of grammar, composition and great literature will never lose its importance in creating literate, well-rounded people, but the new mood of creative discussion will also help to develop logical and interested minds. In keeping with the new mood in the department, this year there is a new department head, Miss Laretta Gultinan. We are sure that Miss Gultinan will be able to give the whole program the same guidance and encouragement she has given to so many students already.

Finally, a word must be said for the helpful courses offered in Remedial and Developmental Reading. With the aid of the new, efficient reading labs, more and more students should be able to make use of these facilities.

Social Studies Aids

So where's Pittsfield?

"In 1492 Columbus sailed the ocean blue."

The Social Studies Department is one of the broadest and most varied in the P.H.S. curriculum. It includes far more than the standard history courses, for it aims to inform us and to help us understand not only the events of the past, but also the trends of the present and the future. Supplementing the excellent courses in American, European and World History, many courses are offered in the Social Sciences. Political Science, World Affairs, Economics and Psychology all aim to bring us to a better understanding of the forces that shape our complex world.

Faces a Challenging Future

Mr. Leahy demonstrates the conductivity of solutions.

Hand in hand with the modern world's emphasis on technology goes the increasing importance of the sciences. In addition to the growing need for doctors, researchers and scientists, today's people and those of the future will need a basic understanding of biology, chemistry and physics if they are to understand the increasingly technical and scientific world they live in. With this in mind, P.H.S. offers courses in the basics of these sciences as well as advanced courses for students seriously interested in science as a career.

Working in the well-equipped labs gives students a chance to see in operation the principles they are studying. Most of all, the study of science and the scientific method can teach the skills of logic and clear reasoning that are invaluable in any field.

This a Small World

Like many branches of American education, the study of foreign languages is growing to meet the challenge of changing world perspectives. The new world is smaller, and yet more inclusive, as people everywhere are awakening to the fascination of other lands and cultures. The key to these cultures and people is language, and P.H.S. strives to make its foreign language curriculum as exciting and up-to-date as possible.

Most Pittsfield High students have had the opportunity of using the extensive language facilities the school provides. Students are offered many films, tapes and records, as well as the use of the large and well-equipped language laboratory. More important than these technical resources, however, are the human resources available — the talented and patient group of teachers who are always ready and willing to guide their students in mastering French, Spanish, German or Latin.

Looking Forward With

Mathematics Staff, P. M.: Robert Taylor, Francis Curley, Leonard Scott, Justin Davis, Michael Kendall.

Pittsfield High is a school that always tries to gear its programs to the trends of the "outside" world, and one of the most important of modern trends is that towards technology and science. These fields are constantly offering greater opportunities to men and women who are prepared. Accordingly, the Technical and Mathematics Departments have become increasingly important. The Technical program offers students an excellent start to a career in the field of engineering — one which is especially promising. It emphasizes the maths and sciences, but students are encouraged to follow a well balanced program. The Math Department, which is more familiar to most students, includes courses in algebra, geometry, trigonometry and advanced math.

The Vocational Department

Watch your fingers!

Miss Marion Willis and Miss Margaret Marvel, Industrial Arts Teachers.

What's cooking?

In our increasingly industrial and technical world, there is a constant demand for people who are ready to keep society moving forward. Conscious of this immediate need, the Vocational Department seeks to train students who will be ready and able to make a complete contribution during and after high school. It trains skilled draftsmen, mechanics, machine operators, salesmen and homemakers. New courses in electricity, electronics and food trades have been added to the existing technical courses and to the Cooperative Distributive Education program which trains students for jobs in various branches of retail business. The Household Arts Department helps girls learn about food, clothing and homemaking in general — invaluable information for any woman.

the Problems of Organization

Skills such as stenography, data processing, bookkeeping and typing are all important to the organization of any business or industry. Without the assistance of these skills, and many others closely related, confusion would reign supreme. The Commercial Department make sure that there will be no shortage of properly trained people to handle the organizational aspects of the future by providing students with these skills. Organizing the Commercial Department this year is its new head, Mr. Gregory Voci.

Education Complete the Program

Most of the courses offered at a school have some central role in preparing students for the future. Math, English, science, a foreign language, all these lead directly or indirectly into some specific career. Music, art and gym, on the other hand, do not prepare some students for the career they will follow after graduation. What these courses do provide, however, is just as important. Taken with the rest of a student's program they help to form a complete, well-rounded personality, one which is able to fully appreciate the leisure which progress gives. This ability may be vitally important, as vital as knowing how to work, when the day arrives when leisure hours outnumber working hours.

Friendly and understanding counselors, specially trained to aid students in solving their problems, are available to help select careers, courses, and schools of higher education.

Every P.H.S. student, wherever he may go after high school, is greatly indebted to the members of the Guidance Department for their assistance.

UP, UP, and AWAY!

Reigning as Queen was Sherry Chisolm.

The Junior Class could have and did dance all night at the Junior Prom on May 24th. The theme Up, Up, and Away carried everybody to an exciting time. All matters ran smoothly and efficiently under the able and imaginative direction of the prom co-chairmen Pat Curd and Marvin Kennedy. The highlight of the evening came when, after the traditional promenade of the couples around the dance floor, Sherry Chisolm was selected as Prom Queen and given full reign for the remainder of the dance. After the prom concluded, the party continued for many of the couples at Eastover with supper and dancing into the early hours of the morning.

Getting the balloon ready required a concerted effort.

Senior Class Officers 1969

Organize Is the Word

The busiest members of any class are always its officers, and the class of '69 is no exception. Dave, Cheryl, Kevin, Mary and Joan certainly don't lack for work as they organize the many important events of the senior year — the class play, the senior prom, the banquet, and so on — and, of course, the collection of class dues. The greatest praise we can give them is that they get things done, and that's what makes good officers and a great class.

Senior Class Officers: Cheryl Williams, G.V.P.; Dave Williams, President; Mary Gigliotti, Treasurer; Kevin Jon, B.V.P.; and Joan Knysh, Secretary.

Student Council

Elected by the student body, the Student Council acts as a liaison between the students and the faculty, the administration and the community, expressing the students' ideas and likewise influencing actions which relate to the school, whether scholastically or non-scholastically. This year the Student Council truly represents P.H.S. as a whole as for the first time the Vocational section is represented.

Student Council Officers: Paul Massimiano, vice-president; Connie Greene, assistant treasurer; Marvin Kennedy, president; Anne Hill, treasurer; Barb Briggs, secretary.

A typical meeting?

Pep Club

Including some of the most school-spirited students, the Pep Club seeks to build up enthusiasm and pride in our athletic teams and in our school in general. Rallies, dances, and bonfires are but a small portion of the generating force which makes the students take notice of their school—the real motivation comes from the Pep Club members themselves who share with the student body their immeasurable spirit and pride in PHS.

Mr. Robert Sage
Class Advisor 1968-1969

In Greatest Appreciation

A familiar gesture to those who know him.

All too often adults blame the "generation gap" as the cause for their inability to understand young people and let the matter rest there. Few people try to understand the workings of the young adult mind in today's world, and even fewer succeed. One of the successful people is Mr. Sage, who, above all, has been able through his ability to understand, to communicate with us, sometimes on our level, but more often demanding us to rise to his. He has also been the major supporter and support of our class, giving us as much freedom as possible and as much guidance as we would accept. To the members of the Class, Mr. Sage will always be remembered for his willingness to help when we were in need of it, his wisdom to refuse us when we should do the work ourselves, and his ability to communicate with us. As we leave P.H.S., we only hope that another senior class will know the guidance of such a person as Mr. Sage.

Perhaps one of Mr. Sage's characteristics that makes him so important to the seniors is his ability to communicate with them—inside the classroom and out.

There is a lot of work involved in graduating a class—including a lot of paper work.

P.H.S. Varsity Band

An important part of the life of P.H.S. is its Varsity Band. Composed of 54 members, the band provides musical accompaniment to many school activities including rallies and football games and aptly represents P.H.S. in community and district parades.

President Rosemary Simonetta, Vice-President Joseph Boulais and Secretary Theresa Caperello head up the 1969 Madrigals. Madrigals is another of the many active musical groups at Pittsfield High. The choral ensemble, directed by Mrs. Wayne is busy all year performing for various school programs such as the Christmas pageant and for many local clubs.

G.A.A. Activities Received Enthusiastically

G.A.A. Board members pause briefly during a busy meeting: Vicki Makes, Wendy Gleason, Pat Curd, president Joan Germanowski, secretary Barb Briggs, and vice-president Linda Klemanski.

The purpose of the Girls' Athletic Association of Pittsfield High School is "to instill in every girl the true meaning of sportsmanship, conduct becoming to a sportswoman, including honest rivalry and graceful acceptance of results." Through the many sports programs and activities it sponsors, the G.A.A. does this and more, giving its officers and board members a sense of responsibility and leadership.

Through the many sports programs and activities it sponsors, the G.A.A. does this and more, giving its officers and board members a sense of responsibility and leadership.

Each year the officers and board members plan with the advice of Miss Helen McNaughton the various club activities. This year's program included the usual after school sports, modern dance classes, a hootenany, a hayride, Rollerskating and Ski Nights and several trips. The most popular events, of course, are the annual Valentine's Dance and the G.A.A. Banquet. This year, as always, the dance was the highlight of the winter activities. The banquet remains one of the most moving events as it symbolizes the departure from the G.A.A. and from the school the senior members.

In General

The In General, now in its fifth year of existence, has expanded in size and scope to include coverage and comment upon affairs of local and national interest in addition to those pertaining directly to school. The paper trains its staff in the proper procedures of newspaper writing and encourages the development of concise, accurate journalistic style. In General is becoming an increasingly influential organ of the student body, acting as an outlet for personal expression and as a springboard for serious debate.

The Student's Pen

The Student's Pen is a literary magazine published quarterly through the efforts of its talented and energetic staff under the direction of Mrs. Delaiti, Mrs. Schlawin, and Miss Hoffman. Incorporating both art and literature in its format, the Pen offers a means of expression seldom found in high school publications. It is because of this and the quality that is its trademark that the Student's Pen maintains its "A" rating by Columbia.

A typical editor's meeting of the Student's Pen involves a great deal of serious discussion, but there is always room for humor.

The Dome Must Go Through

Once again a group of interested students found themselves faced with the tremendous job of putting together another great P.H.S. yearbook. With the guidance of Miss Sally O'Donnell and Editor-in-Chief Karen Forsgard, however, they somehow managed to pull together and overcome the many obstacles imposed by double sessions and produce our yearbook, for everyone knew that the Dome must go through.

The Debating Club Debates the Draft

The most vociferous group in the school is almost certainly the Debating Club. The club competes in the Berkshire Forensic League with five other public and private high schools. The topic under discussion for the 1968-69 debating season is:

Resolved: That the United States should establish a system of compulsory service for all citizens.

Writers and Illustrators Share Ideas and Criticism

Ellen Metropole gives a few hints on mounting techniques.

Creativity and talent are difficult to discern and encourage with the kind of care they deserve within our brief classroom periods, so Writers and Illustrators gives talented students a chance to really use their ideas. Members work together trading ideas and criticism, developing skills and talents through individual and group projects. With their advisor Mrs. Delaiti, members experiment with everything from etchings to graverubbings, from short stories to poems.

A New Club on the Go

J.E.T.S.—Junior Engineering Technical Society—is one of the newer and more active clubs in the school, for although the group meets only once a month, the intervening weeks are filled with frequent trips and experimental projects. The club is geared to give prospective technicians and engineers more experience and insight into this fascinating field than the regular technical course can offer.

DECA Provides On-the-Job Training

On-the-job training is one profitable opportunity offered by DECA—the Distributive Education Club of America. With the help of their advisor Miss Nugent, members have the chance to gain valuable experience in retail sales. The club is not all work, however, for it offers various field trips and speakers and, of course, the annual DECA candy sale.

U.S.F. Is a Special Cause to P.H.S. Students

Twice a year a group of students make an extra effort for U.S.F.—United Students' Fund. These students, the school representatives of U.S.F., supervise the school-wide collections for the students' special cause. In addition to these regular collections, U.S.F. organizes the student-faculty hockey game, the proceeds of which go directly to the Fund. This year the group is headed by President Bill Levering, Vice-President Laura Leon, and their advisor Miss Rosemary Cummings.

This year's USF committee looks pleased about the amount of the contribution made by P.H.S. students—all of the committee except Dave Winslow who still thinks he could have done a little better.

A Note of Thanks

Mr. James P. Reynolds has been the Superintendent of Pittsfield's Public Schools for the past seven years. During his term of office, he initiated many new and much-needed changes within the school system. He challenged us with his innovations and stimulated us with his suggestions. He was the guiding force behind seven years of our school life. We thank him for his efforts in our behalf and wish him well in his retirement years.

Christmas Time at P.H.S.

Sue Russell adds the finishing touches to one of the whimsical sentinels to be placed in the lobby.

The Holiday spirit permeates the school once again as the Decorations Committee, the Special Events Committee, and the Christmas Play Committee get together to create an atmosphere and provide entertainment that will spread the good feeling that is Christmas.

Soccer Team Makes Western Mass. Tournament

The Pittsfield High soccer team, which at the beginning of the season was rated very poorly, made the best showing of any soccer team yet fielded. After several weeks of grueling practice the team was ready to face Monument Mt., defending league champs. The game was forced into overtime by a 0-0 deadlock and P.H.S. lost only by a heartbreaking penalty kick in the second overtime period. Next to come was highly rated Mt. Greylock. Pittsfield went into the game with three starters missing and succumbed 4-0.

With their backs to the wall, the team settled down to really play ball. Disproving their critics they shut-out eight of the next ten teams they faced, including 0-0 ties with Monument Mt. and Mt. Greylock. The most memorable game of the second half of the season was against Wahconah, with both teams striving for a chance at the Western Mass. Tournament and Wahconah seeking to avenge a 1-0 loss to P.H.S. earlier in the season. Pittsfield came from behind to gain a 2-2 tie and a berth in the coveted tournament.

During the first game of the tournament, Coach Ralph Gionet's fine work showed as twelfth-seeded P.H.S. breezed by sixth-seeded Leominster High by a score of 3-1. In their finest game of the season Pittsfield bowed to the highly precisioned Chicopee Comprehensive team. After an initial shock at the entirely different style of play of the Chicopee team, Pittsfield began to show their skill, too, making up a 1-0 deficit to tie the game in the fourth quarter. After three overtime periods the final elusive shot evaded goalie Bob Hickey in the gathering darkness to end the soccer season.

Despite the loss to Chicopee Comp., everyone must agree that ours was a most successful season, one to proud of.

This year the indefatigable Miss Mac has once again trained and organized the P.H.S. cadettes. One of the best known organizations in the entire school, the Cadettes have specialized in precision marching for almost 24 years. At rallies and games the girls stand out in their spirited outfits — purple and white, the school colors. Through their skilled marching, their community and school services, and their yearly fashion show, the Cadettes contribute to both school spirit and school prestige. Above all, the girls symbolize the kind of co-operation and friendship that P.H.S. means to everyone.

Football Team Tramples St. Joe

This year the Pittsfield Generals suffered through one of the most disappointing seasons in the team's history. With a 2-6 record, our long and hard hours seemed wasted until the last and most important game, when once again the team upheld the long line of victories against the St. Joe Crusaders. It was a clean win for the Generals with a score of 19-0.

One of the major reasons for this unsuccessful season was the number of experienced seniors who graduated last spring leaving many positions to be filled by new, inexperienced players. Nevertheless, win or lose the squad was out there on the field at 5:30 every night, four or five nights a week and you can be sure that they gave their very best effort.

Leading the boys during all those practices were Coach Bob Harris and co-captains Tony Parise and Jim Bagdonas. The team was held together by the solid play of seniors Bagdonis, Parise, Mark Reynolds, Paul Phillips and Al Barbarotta. Other outstanding senior players were Jim Lovejoy, George Laviolette, Don Hayford, Dick Russell, Rudy Hamilton, Glen Frydel and Tom Purry.

The seniors of '69 wish the following teams better luck and more successful seasons.

Cheerleaders' Spirit Lifts the Team on to Victory

The tremendous P.H.S. victory over the St. Joe football team was made of equal parts real team effort and great school spirit. Out there leading masses of enthusiastic fans were our nine vivacious varsity cheerleaders. Jean, Sue, Linda, Peggy, Pam, Lori, Cindy, Barb and Cathy give their special vitality to everything that makes school spirit, from their official job leading cheers to the hours they devote to rallies and decorations.

A Near One for the Generals

The P.H.S. basketball team was lucky this year in their dedicated young coach, Dr. Robert M. Coakley. In his first season he brought the team a new drive and excitement that packed the Boys' Club for each and every home game. A small team with determination and courage, the Generals faced the toughest area teams in the league's history. And yet, no game was decided until the final quarter.

The fans saw an inexperienced team go out on the court and do great new things game after game. It was only a lack of consistency and a few reversed judgment calls that kept the Generals and Coach Coakley from the Northern Berkshire League Championship.

Kevin O'Donnell, one of the most controversial players in the league, was also one of the best ball-handlers.

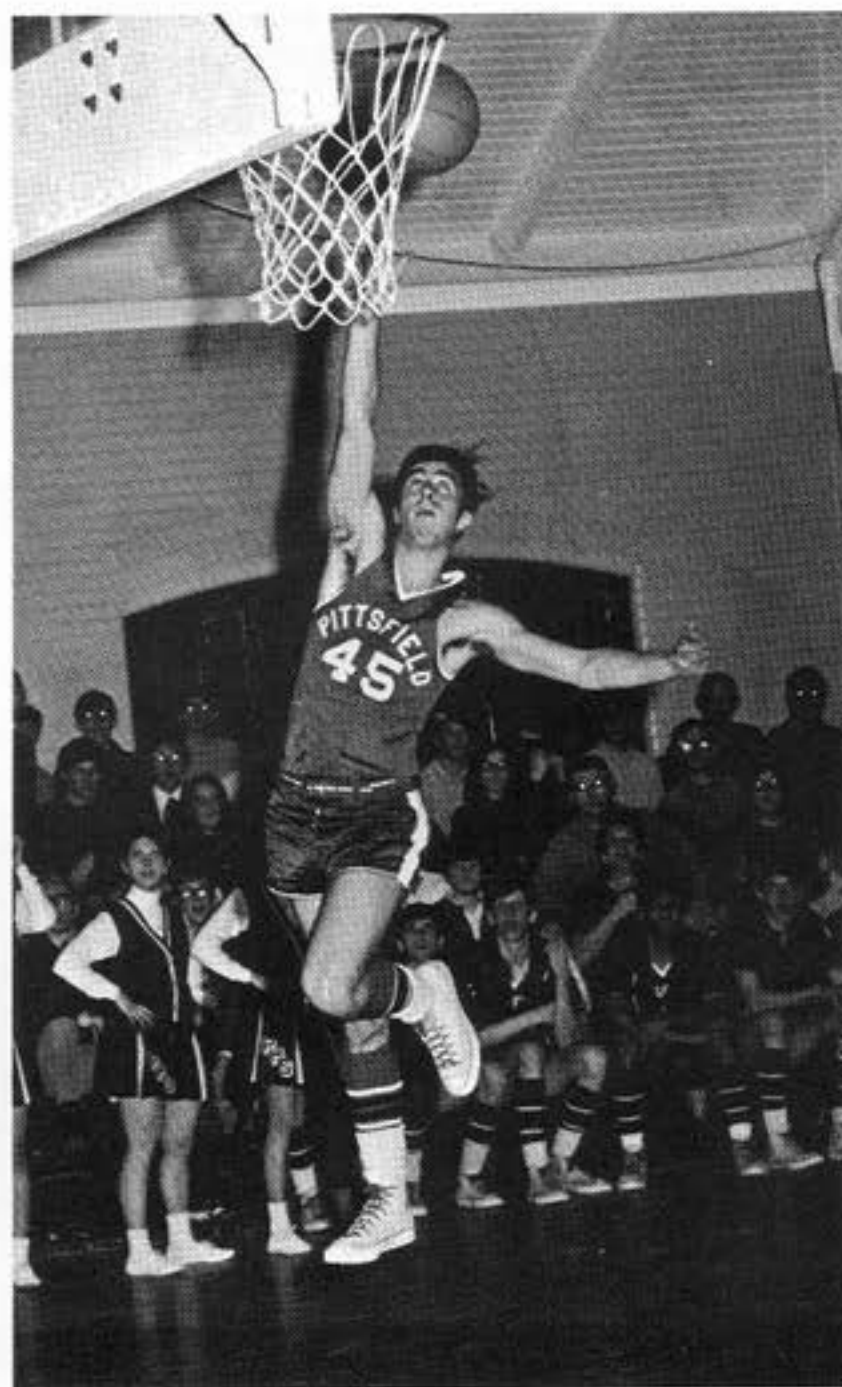

The "Saints" will really need wings to stop this shot from the corner by O'Donnell.

Speaking of wings, it looks as if Captain Rick Russo is doing well enough on his own.

Tom Ryan has a real thriller for the fans.

Bob "Hondo" Hickey has the whole court to himself.

One of the team's shorter members, Captain Leon Kelly made up for his height with his amazing jumping.

Ski Team Again Captures Interscholastics

This was another good year for skiing for Pittsfield High. For the eighth in a row, P.H.S. won the Interscholastic Ski Meet held at Jiminy Peak. The new coach, Ronald A. Estes had good cause to be proud of his skiers.

On the first day of the meet, P.H.S. skiers were running a close second overall. Tremendous victories on the second day, however, by the cross-country and jumping teams won the meet for Pittsfield.

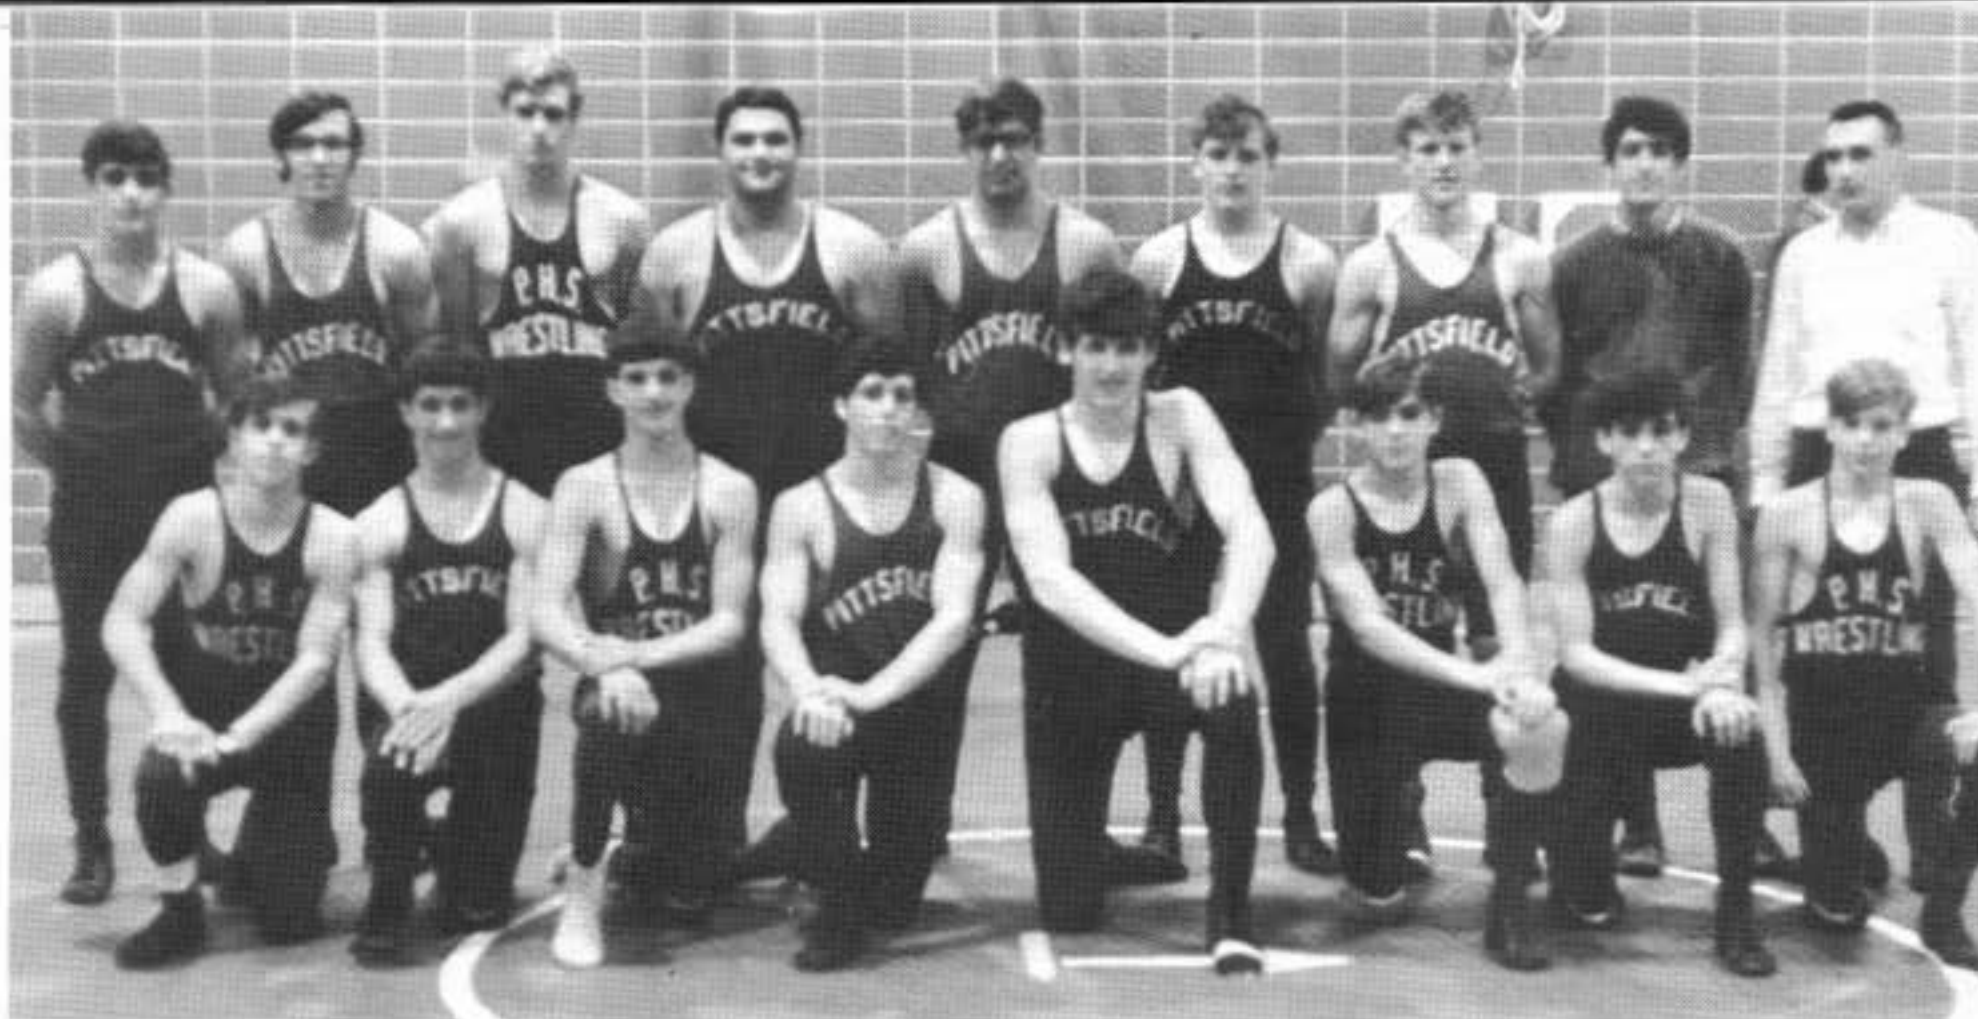

This year a new coach—Ron Estes—took over from former coach Rudi Benedetti, and his freshman year couldn't have been finer. The whole team was a great help to him, but special credit must be given to co-captains Jim Vandergrift and Rob Cella whose strength and experience helped the new coach to bring in his winning team.

To Ron Estes and the junior and sophomore skiers, the best of luck in next year's season on the slopes of Berkshire County. May the following teams be as successful as this year's has been.

Wrestling Team Second in Western Mass.

This year Coach Sylvester brought out the finest wrestling team in P.H.S. history, placing second in the Western Massachusetts Tournament and finishing with an overall record of 12 wins and 3 losses. Besides their fine showing in the tournament, the Pittsfield team was the only team in Western, Mass. to qualify all fourteen wrestlers for the state meet. Among these were four Western Mass. Champions—Joe Philips, Bill Koziara, co-captain Jay Aronstein, and Keith Thompson. At the state meet in Lowell, P.H.S. finished a strong fifth among forty competing schools and also qualified three wrestlers—Jay Aronstein, Bill Koziara, and Ronny Boudreau—for the New England Championships.

A very important factor in this year's success was the leadership of co-captains John Perkins and Jay Aronstein, who have been varsity wrestlers for three years. P.H.S. has finally established itself as one of the strongest competitors among the Springfield area schools. Within the next few years, the team should be ready to take the Western Massachusetts title.

Jay's opponent is getting the worst of this match.

This match lasted only thirty seconds, proving Captain John Perkins wrestling prowess.

Swim Team Has an 'Almost' Even Season

The 68-69 swim team had a rather disappointing season, posting a final mark of 6 wins and 7 losses. The Generals suffered losses to East Longmeadow, Chicopee Comprehensive, Chicopee, Holyoke, West Springfield, South Hadley and Minnechaug, but were victorious over Springfield Trade, Northampton, Springfield Technical, Cathedral, Amherst and Classical. Pittsfield's closest meet was the 49-46 victory over Amherst.

This year's team consisted of six sophomores, eighteen juniors and only three seniors — Brian Walsh, Andy Coty and Al Skowron. Excellent performances were turned in by the six returning lettermen, notably, Doug Snyder in the 100 yard backstroke and Steve Strang in the 200 yard individual medley. There were also strong showings in the 100 yard backstroke by Brian Walsh and in the diving event by Andy Coty.

Coach Robert McGee is uncertain about the strength of next year's team because of the loss of swimmers to the new school and a division in the league's structure. The swimmers and Coach McGee would like to thank all those who supported the team during the season.

Co-captains Steve Strang (in water), and Doug Snyder demonstrate their techniques.

Hockey Team Take 2nd in Western Mass. Tournament

Co-captain Gene Fitzgerald.

The most successful team of the athletic season was the PHS hockey team. Led by our three captains, high-scoring Gene Fitzgerald, who was the scoring leader of Western Massachusetts, Iron Man Neil Eddy, and hard-checking David Toomey, the hockey team compiled an overall 12-7 record which included third place in the rough Wright Fay Division and second place in the Western Massachusetts Hockey League Tournament.

Under Coach Carl Moffat, this year's hockey team was one of the most fast-shooting and hard-checking PHS teams ever to play. Even though small, our team played some of the most aggressive hockey in Western Mass. combined with the qualities of good sportsmanship.

As you know, this was the team's first year in the highly competitive Wright Fay Division, but that didn't stop our Generals as they defeated all the favored teams at least once.

Congratulations to Coach Moffat and the boys for a very successful and exciting season.

Enthusiasm for Girls' Sports Not Dampened

Members of the varsity field hockey team could be distinguished by their scraped legs and black-and-blue knees. No boys' teams were ever more competitive than these girls in the final play-offs, in which the seniors bested the juniors 7-1 and 6-2. Most important, however, good sportsmanship prevailed and everyone — winners and losers — had a good time.

Here at P.H.S. the girls' interest in sports has never been limited to cheering at the football games. Double sessions might have really dampened this enthusiasm, but surprisingly they seem to be having little adverse effect, especially as far as the morning session is concerned. If anything, more girls are taking part in extracurricular field hockey, volleyball, gymnastics, basketball and softball.

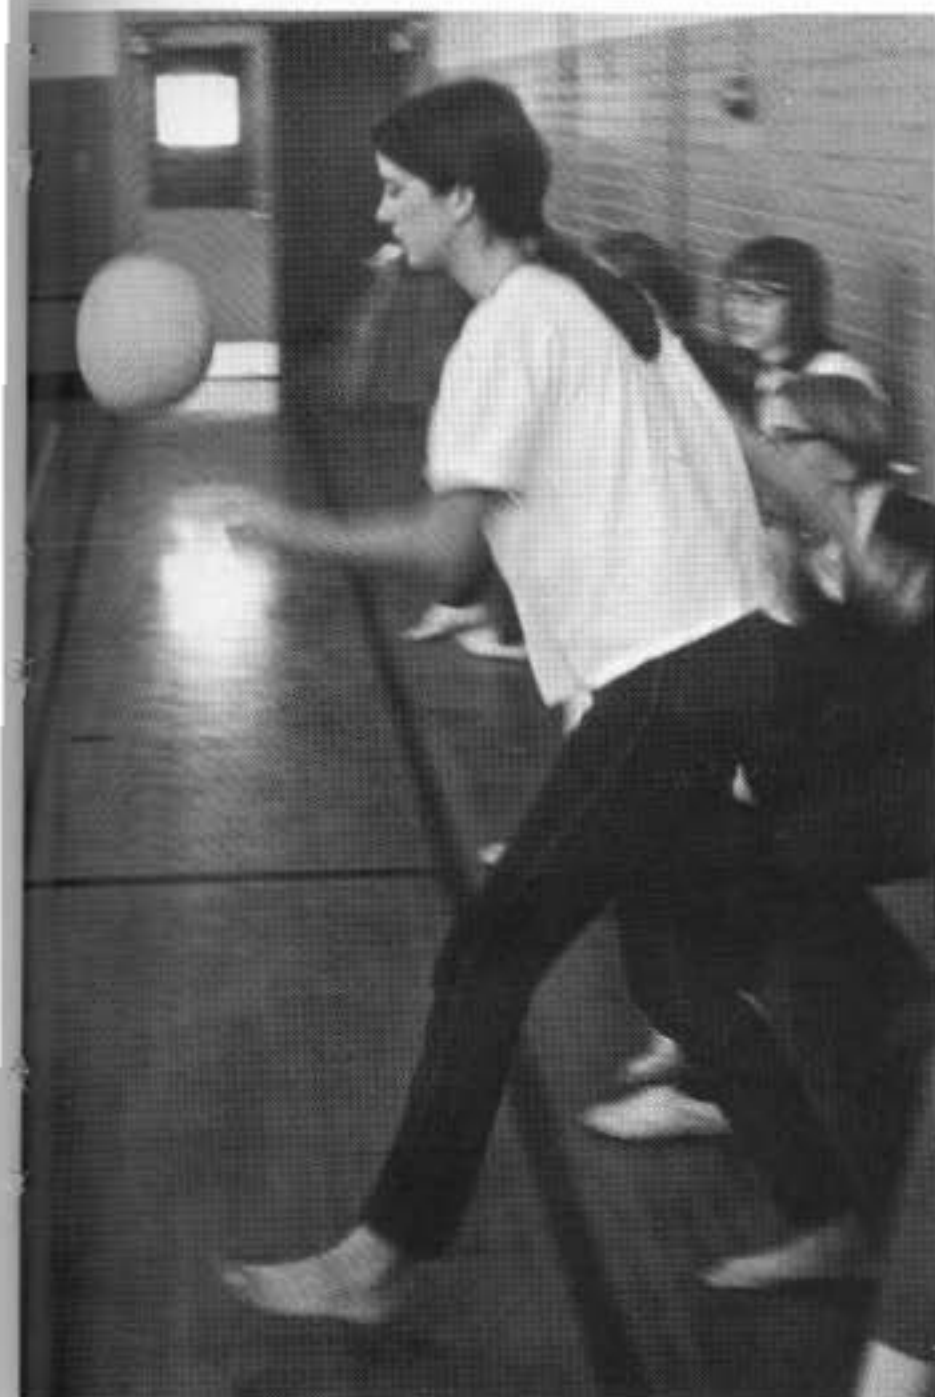

Barb Huban and Vicki Makes vie for control of the ball.

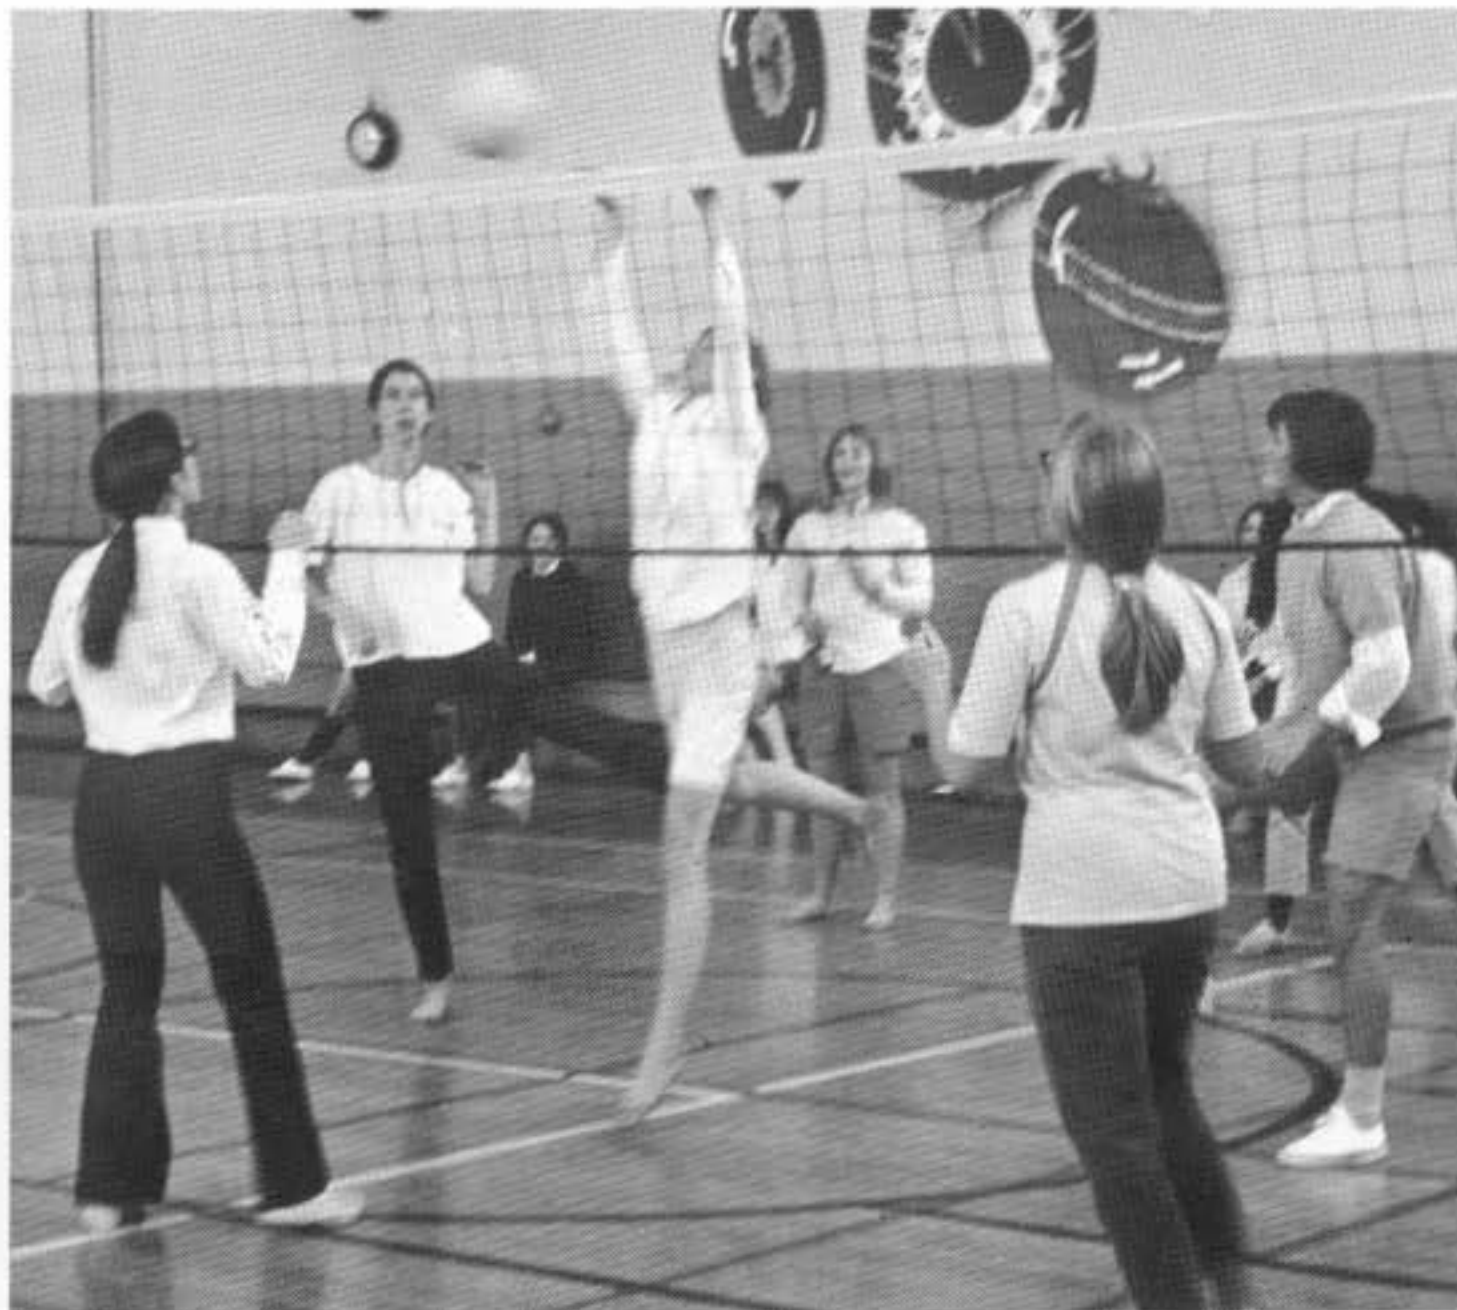

The junior and senior teams battle it out for the championship!

Spectators watch anxiously as Pat Curd serves

Barb Huban saves the ball in a valiant effort to maintain an early lead over the junior team.

A greater than ever number of girls came out for volleyball this year and so there were varsity and junior varsity teams for both junior and senior girls. The seniors were defeated in the final play-offs this time, with scores of 6-12, 4-12.

Basketball Is for Girls, Too

It is not just the boys who enjoy the excitement and competition of a good basketball game. Witness the number of girls who turned out this year again for the extra-curricular sport. As in the volleyball tournament, varsity and junior varsity teams were chosen after several weeks of round-robin competition. Best of all, the weeks of fun and excitement ended in another win for the senior girls.

Fast action was necessary in this play.

Gymnastics Offers a Real Challenge

Madeline Carnevale shows her skill on the uneven bars.

Even girls who are not sports-minded enjoy gymnastics, and anyone who has ever tried it knows that it requires a great deal of skill and hard work to master the techniques involved. The rewards, however, are worthwhile — a wonderful sense of fitness, grace and poise. Here at P.H.S. we are fortunate to have available such equipment as the trampoline, balance beam, uneven parallel bars and buckstand horse which can be used during and after school. The activity has been gaining in popularity and hopefully will continue to do so. Along with swimming and badminton, gymnastics offers constructive physical education for less competitive girls.

A difficult pose on the balance beam is cheerfully demonstrated by Betsy Gregory.

Linda Connor performs her specialty, the straddle vault, on the horse.

PHS Scores

The national average of students who achieve the status of semi-finalist in the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test is set at one half of one percent of the entire graduating class. PHS, however, doubled this figure as nine students obtained a score high enough to classify them as semi-finalists. Such high scholastic performance results from a conscientious application to schoolwork as well as the desire to gain more knowledge that that which is presented as part of the regular classroom studies. The class unites in congratulating these nine people and hopes that this success will follow them throughout their college years.

Carol Pepperman:

Editor-in-Chief of the Student's Pen and a member of Writers and Illustrators, Carol is a C.P. student carrying A.P. English. She also enjoys writing commercials for WJA, a Junior Achievement radio station, reading anything and everything, and just "goofing off." Carol's future plans include going on to a four year college, but she has not decided which.

Steve Green

A C.P. student carrying A.P. English, Steve's hopes include attending either Dartmouth or Amherst College and later continuing on to law school. In school Steve has been on the soccer team and is the Boys' Sports Editor for the Dome, along with being a member of the National Honor Society.

High Again

Sue Connors:

A C.P. student with Advanced Placement English and American History, Sue will attend Jackson College. Her interest in art can be seen by her chairmanship of the Decorating Committee of the Junior Prom and now the fact that she is Co-Chairman of the Senior Prom. She is also chairman of Writers and Illustrators. Sue also enjoys writing for the Student's Pen and, outside the school, working with the Town Player's apprentice group.

Sue Russell:

Sue's C.P. curriculum includes A.P. chemistry and math. She will attend Smith College and would like eventually to become a research chemist or a lawyer. An extremely busy girl, Sue is the senior Cadette manager, is on the G.A.A. board and is a homeroom representative. In addition she is a member of Future Teachers of America and serves on the election and lobby decoration committees. She also contributes to the Dome and In General.

Judy Wildman:

Enrolled in the C.P. curriculum, Judy takes A.P. English in preparation for a career in journalism after college. To keep her busy in school, Judy is the capable Editor-in-Chief of In General, is a Cadette officer, a member of the Student Council and a contributor to the essay section of the Students' Pen. That not being enough, outside of school Judy is President of United Synagogue Youth and enjoys reading, writing, skiing, swimming and talking to everyone.

Kevin Marzotto:

Kevin is enrolled in the C.P. Technical Curriculum with Advanced Placement Math and Physics. After graduation, he hopes to attend the Massachusetts Institute of Technology where he will major in physics in preparation for a career as a nuclear physicist. At P.H.S. Kevin is a member of the National Honor Society and is treasurer of the J.E.T.S.

Marcia Culver:

Marcia is enrolled in the C.P. curriculum and now carries Advanced Placement English, though through last year she also took Honors in science. She will attend Barnard College next year and would like to spend a couple of years in VISTA after college. Presently Marcia is on the staff of the Students' Pen and is an editor of the Dome.

Rob Robinson:

A C.P. student enrolled in the Advance Placement English and Biology courses, Rob is an avid reader, a fluent speaker, and a philandering philosopher. He would like to attend Harvard College where he hopes to pursue a career in writing.

Edith Bach, Bev Beaman, Gerald Ketcham, Pat Abel, and Ethel Harris. Absent are Elizabeth Rawson and Stuart Keith.

The Longfellow Chapter of the National Honor Society.

The National Honor Society

Twenty-eight seniors were inducted this year into the Longfellow Chapter of the National Honor Society. This organization gives special credit to students with high academic standing. Members must maintain an average of ninety per cent or better in all academic subjects, and exemplify the high qualities for which the Society stands—leadership, scholarship, character, and service.

The students in the National Honor Society work for the betterment of both their school and community. In keeping with the tradition of service and leadership, members have worked on such projects as the Citizens' Scholarship Fund drive. Agreements have been reached with the principal regarding certain changes in the policies of the school. It is our hope that the members of the Society continue to work for the betterment of Pittsfield and the continued high standards of its high school.

Advisors are: Mrs. Barbara Perrotta, Mr. David Quinlan, Mr. Louis Roberts, and Miss Dorothy Rhoades.

Mr. James P. Reynolds congratulates Steve Graves as he receives his National Honor Society pin at the induction ceremony.

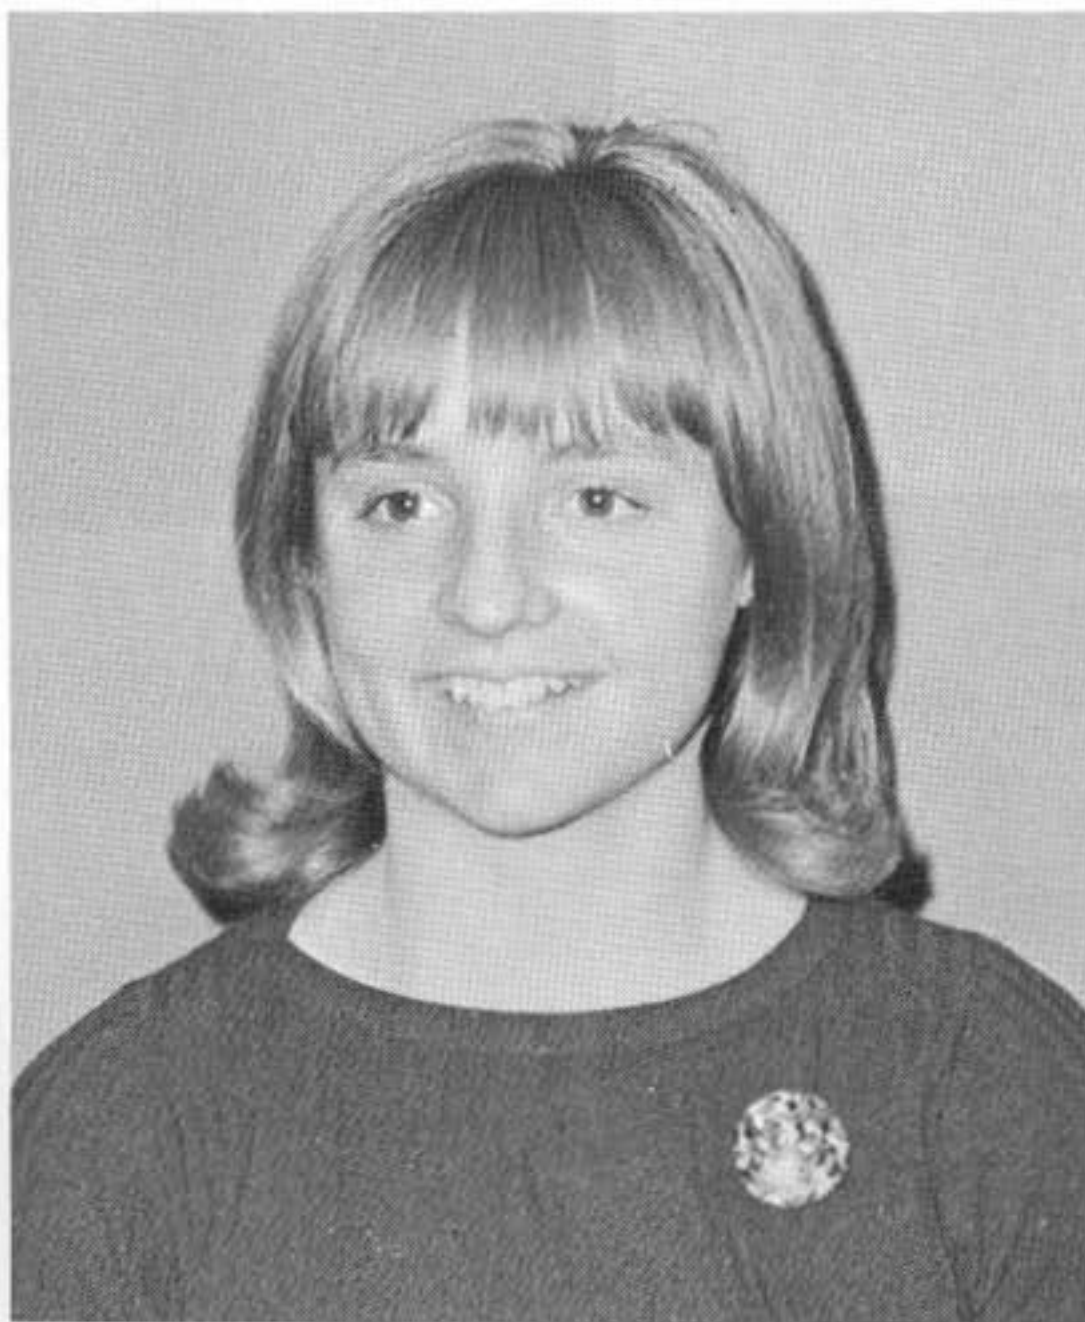

Carol Pepperman lights one of four candles symbolizing the qualities character, scholarship, leadership, and service.

Each year the Jewish War Veterans select a PHS senior whom they feel best exemplifies their theme "Classmates Today, Neighbors Tomorrow." This year the award went to a very deserving senior, Anne Hill.

The Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) is a national women's organization which makes an annual presentation of a citizenship award to an outstanding senior girl attending Pittsfield High School. This award is based upon dependability, leadership, and patriotism. This year's recipient of the award is Susan Ogle.

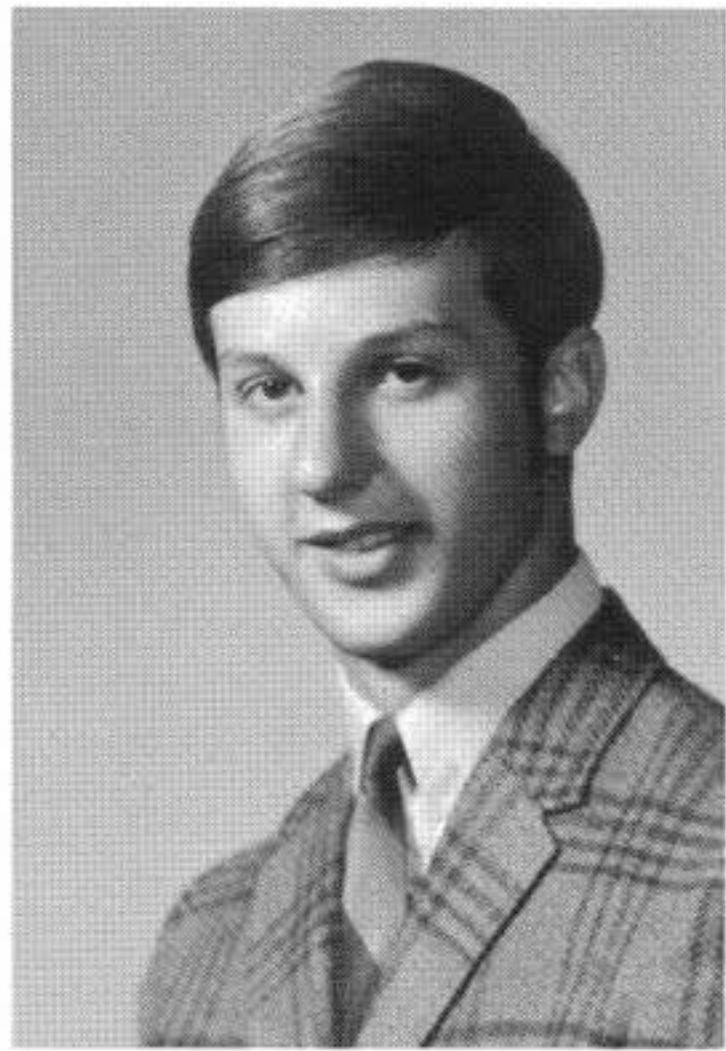

A senior at PHS, Sharon Coles was selected for an exceptional honor by the Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. She was chosen to represent all the Senior Girl Scouts of Region One (New England, New York, New Jersey, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands) at a meeting of the National Board of Directors in New York City. She was one of the twelve Seniors from all regions of the country who met together to discuss the ways in which Senior Girl Scouts can help to break down the walls of prejudice and cement understanding among all girls.

Other Honors for P.H.S. Students

Certainly Stephen Green was well-chosen to represent PHS at Student Government Day at the State House in Boston. A natural leader and diplomat, Steve is interested in government affairs and the whole scope of the changing political scene.

Three senior students at Pittsfield High School were elected as Outstanding Teen-agers of America for 1969. Susan Connors, Anne Hill, and David Williams, who were nominated for this honor by PHS, will go on to compete for state and national awards in the Outstanding Teen-agers of America program.

In Memoriam

William A. Bixler 1951-1968

There is a unity and a closeness that comes from the sharing of common experiences. We who have experienced learning and growing together have become a society connected by a bond that echoes the development of our lives over the past three years. PHS has been the common denominator of our experience and the platform of our society. It has housed us and witnessed our changes as it has done in the past and will continue to do in the future. It has sheltered us with its tradition yet has allowed us to be exposed to the tempo of life in a modern society. Now, as we leave, we are no longer a part of PHS but PHS will always be a part of us.

Since 1835 the Berkshire Mutual has had its part in insuring the future of Berkshire County residents against loss of property. Selling through independent agents, it offers:

- Modern insurance coverages for your home, personal property and business.
- Savings through dividends which are paid on most types of policies.
- Fast claims service, the kind you appreciate when you have a loss, the kind that is possible because BMI's home office is located in Berkshire County.

In Appreciation

The staff of the 1969 Dome would like to express its sincere appreciation to all those who have helped in the publication of this yearbook. We would especially like to thank the following people:

Our advisors — Miss Sally O'Donnell and Mrs. Patricia O'Leary for their patient guidance, and Miss Laretta Gultinan and Mr. Gregg Voci for their special assistance.

Mr. William Rodriguez and Mr. Gregory DeBlois for their fine photography.

Mr. David Lombard of the O'Toole Publishing Company for his advice, patience and understanding.

Our advertisers for the financial assistance which made this publication possible.

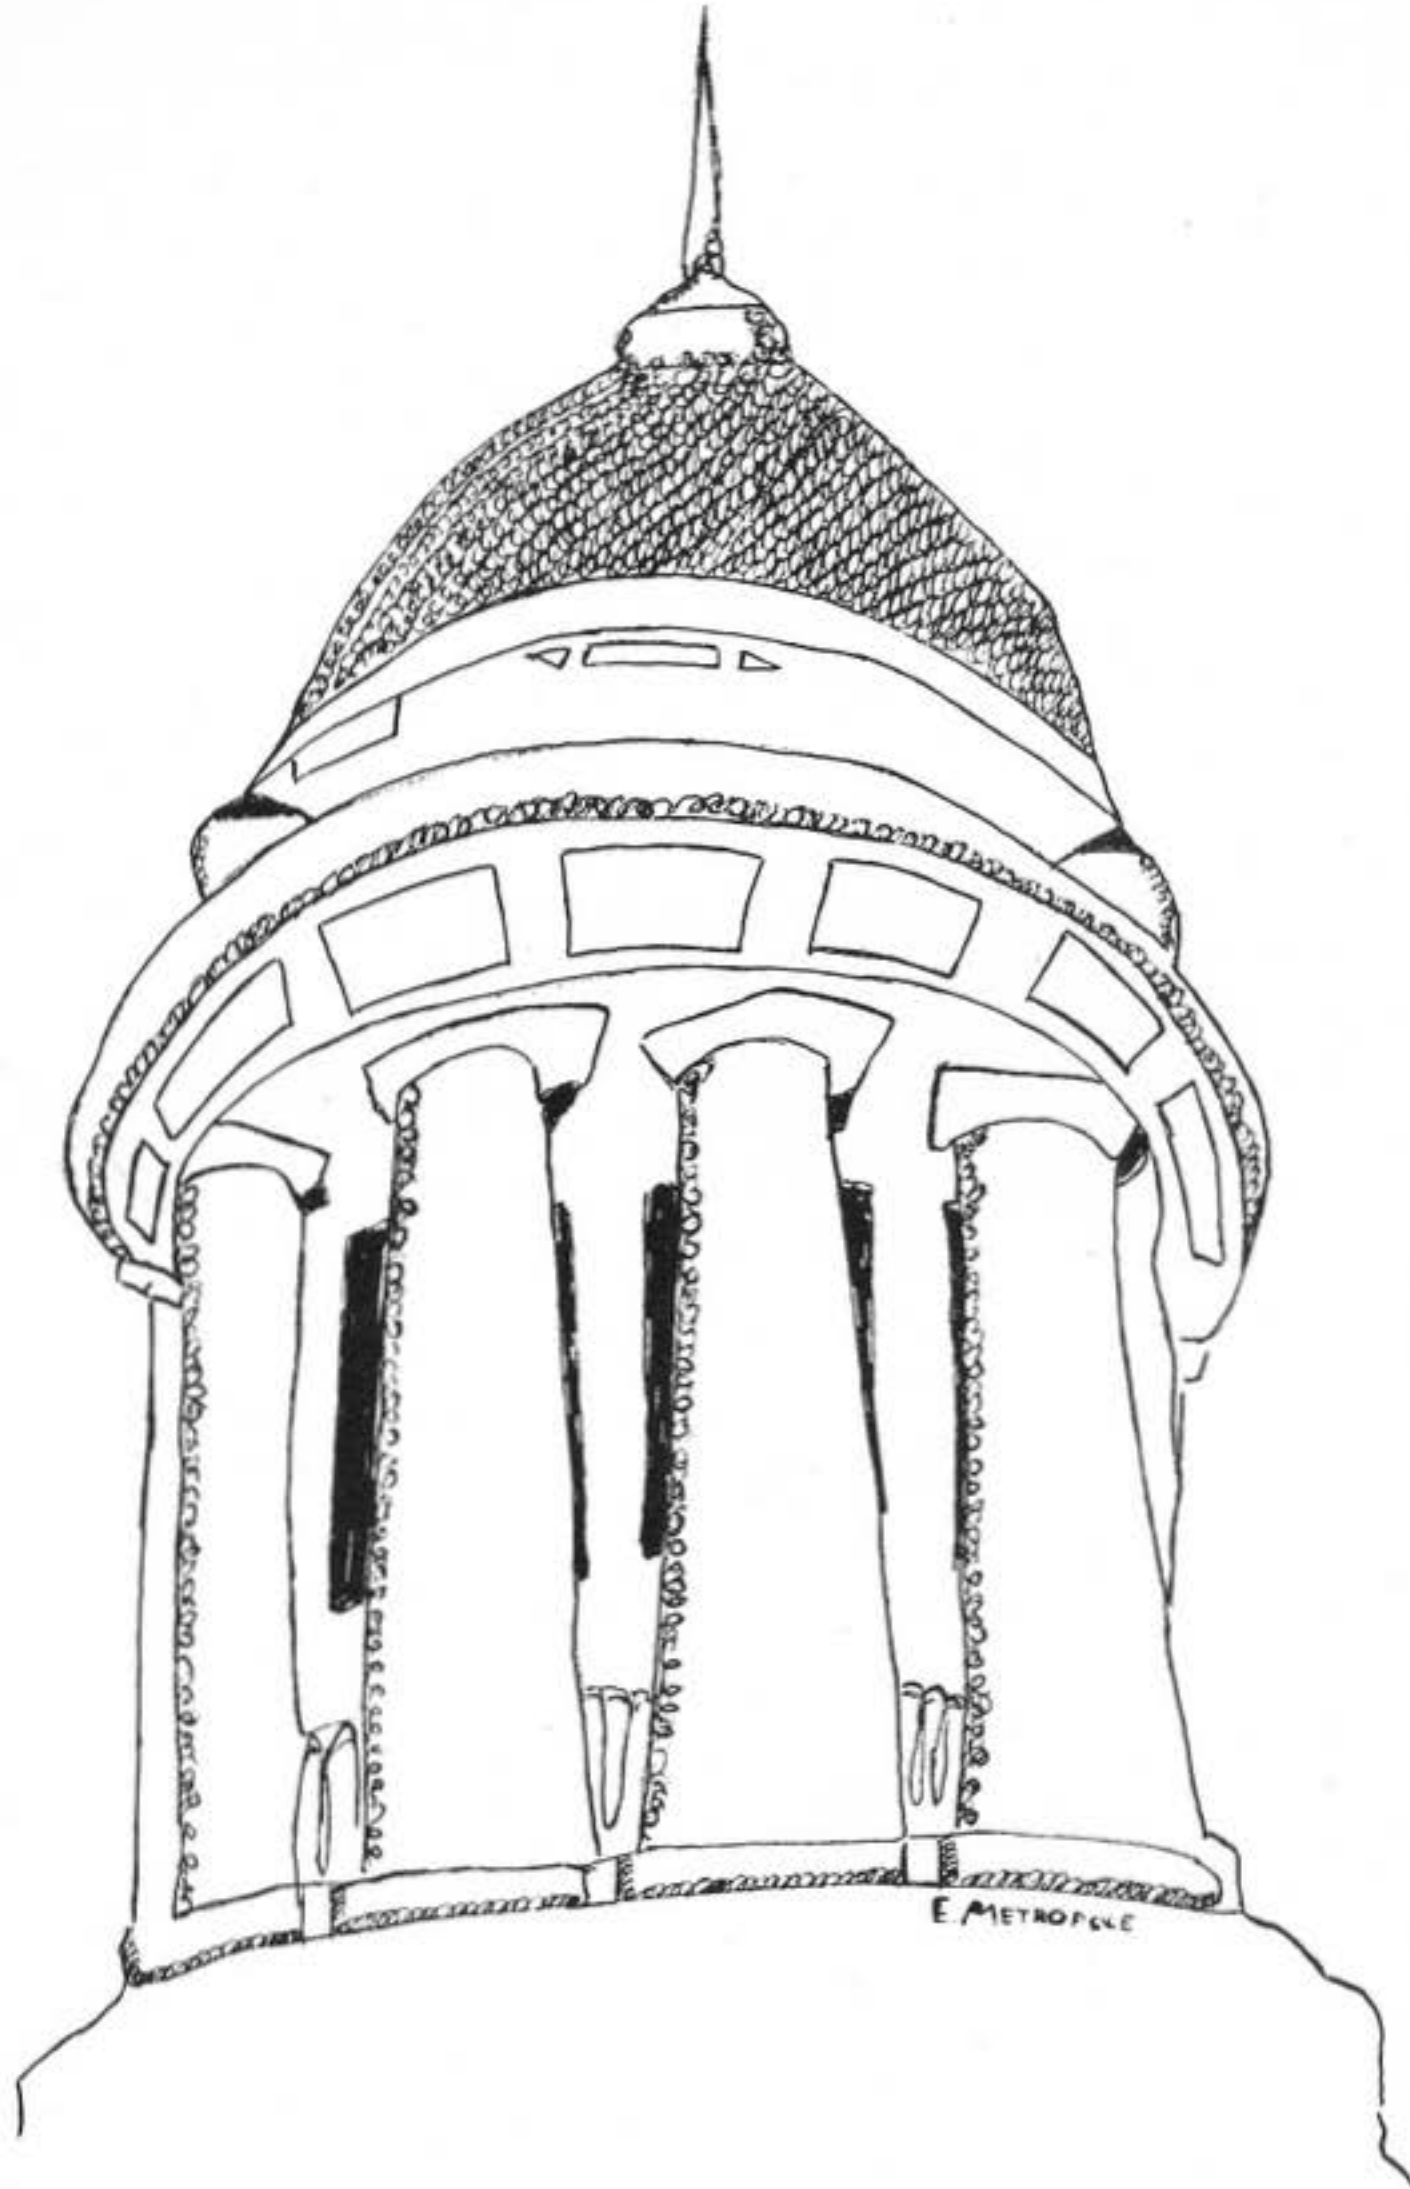

And finally, Mr. Robert Sage for his special encouragement and help.

Retiring Faculty

The 1969 graduates were not content to leave Pittsfield High alone—we took three of the most distinguished faculty members with us: Miss Helene Millet, Mr. Reginald Thompson, and Mr. Walter Reagan. In each of their individual areas—Miss Millet as the head of the French department, Mr. Thompson in his work in Related Studies in the Vocational department, and Mr. Reagan as the head of the Guidance department—they gave their utmost to make the school and its students a success. Their pupils and all those who felt their long-reaching influence regret their departure. We can only wish them the greatest happiness in their retirement years.

Baseball

The baseball team, behind captains Rick Russo, Mark Reynolds and Dick Russell, managed to gain a second place standing in the Northern Berkshire League and a berth in the Western Mass. Tournament. However, the team that met 1st place Wahconah was not the same cool team it had been in the regular season. Nervousness and a severe case of "trying too hard" prevailed and Pittsfield lost.

Our thanks to colorful Coach Bud Pellerin for his determination and devotion to the sport of baseball, and for building a team we can all be proud of.

A Pittsfield player demonstrates our league-leading style.

Track

The Pittsfield High track team successfully upheld the tradition of the past five teams by completing the season undefeated and then by capturing their sixth straight Western Mass. crown.

Many people say that each successful track team will be the last, but then, seemingly out of nowhere Coach Rudi Benedetti will begin to uncover new talent for another winning team. Well, good luck next year Coach, because the splitting of the school will make this task especially hard.

Fran and Jimmy vie for the lead.

A beautiful shot of one of the most difficult and spectacular track events.

Golf

Under the experienced guidance of Coach Frank Moxom, the golf team rallied to one of the best seasons in P.H.S. golf history. The golfers successfully defeated their local opponents and went on to win the Western Mass. Championship. In a heartbreaking loss the golfers took second place State Championships.

This year's tennis team rallied to another rewarding season under Coach Sylvester, finishing with a 5-5 record. Since the team includes few seniors, next year's team should have little difficulty settling down to an even better season.

Tennis

Senior Dave Whitehead is ready to slam one across the court.

Nearing the climax of the play, Annie Sullivan begins to receive some response to her effort to communicate with the young Helen Keller.

Mrs. Keller portrays the helplessness she feels with regards to Helen's state.

Cruelly ambitious, Lord and Lady Macbeth plot the murder of King Duncan in the BRET production of Macbeth.

Theater: PHS

PHS went theatrical this year with productions from the newly-formed BRET (Berkshire Regional Educational Theater) which presented Shaw's comedy Androcles and the Lion and one of Shakespeare's finest tragedies Macbeth.

In keeping with the tradition of a sophomore play (a tradition that began with the Class of '69) the Class of '71 revealed great dramatic ability with its moving production of William Gibson's The Miracle Worker.

Awards Day Class Picnic

The Cheerleaders receive sterling hockey charms from the hockey team for their unwavering support of the team.

Well . . . does it fit?

Ponterril will never be the same.

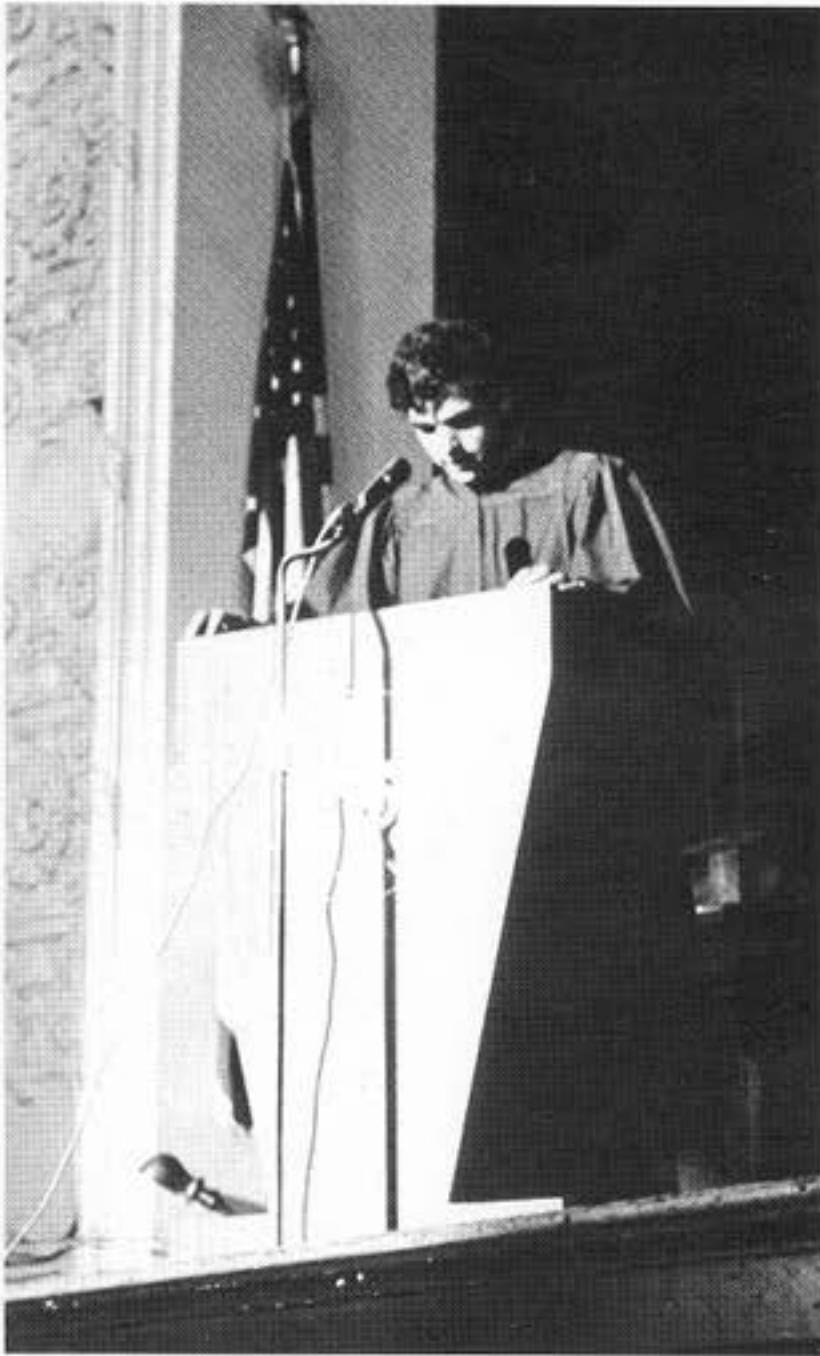

Okay, who said he wanted to be a wiener?

Class Day

Senior Banquet

Lumpy makes use of the new lectern, the gift from the Class of '69, as he reads over some final directions.

Led by its officers, the Senior Class adjourns to the east side of the school where it will plant the "Class Tree."

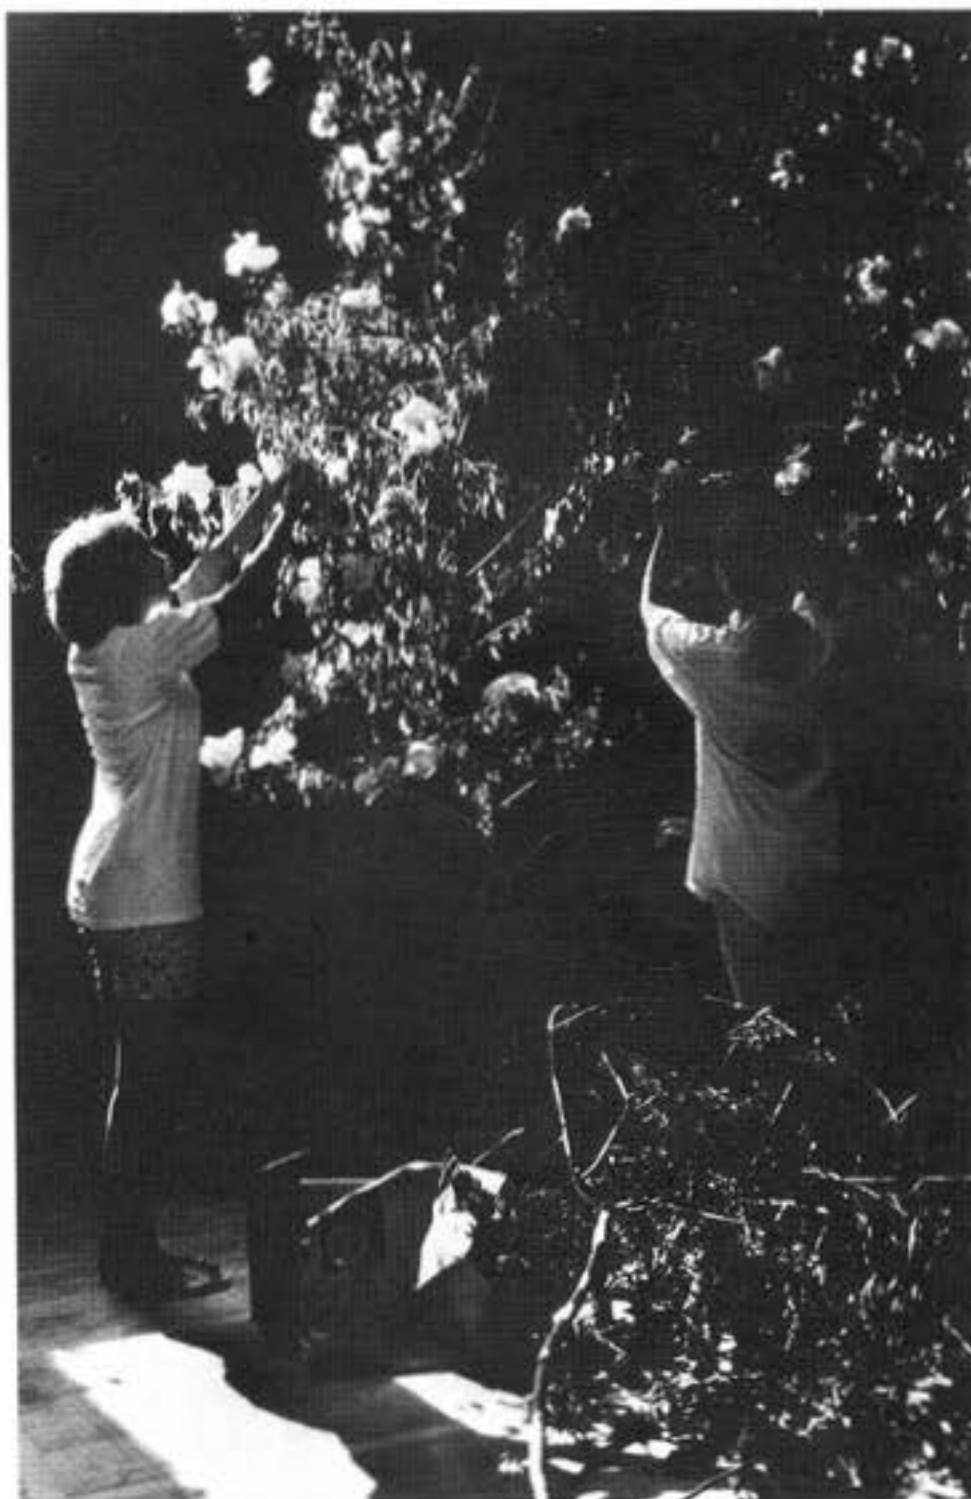

The excitement of the Prom, only a few hours away, is momentarily overshadowed by a feeling of ease as friends talk casually over dinner.

Wildflowers

'Midst silver-leafed trees and whimsical flowers, the Seniors held their Prom. Music, dancing, and just plain fun were the order of the evening. The after-prom, once again held at Eastover, provided the final touches for a truly wonderful evening, and ushered in the numerous after-after-prom parties and breakfast parties which have entered the ranks of tradition at PHS.

Donna Salvatore and Joan Knysh arrange the floral centerpiece.

Where wildflowers wouldn't grow naturally, they were helped along by Barb Rutka and Donna Salvatore.

With only hours left before the Prom, the Decorating Committee decides final arrangements.

The lighted Dome held a special significance for the Seniors: for some it was the first time they had seen it so lighted—for many, it would be the last.

Even less conventional students enjoyed the Prom.

The beautiful decorations were the result of hours of work by many students including Mark Eksuzian, Donna Salvatore, Tom Saccheti, co-chairmen; and Louise Pictrowski.

Graduation

June 22, 1969

Graduation Day finally arrived, and the floor of the Boys Club Lighthouse was flooded with 750 graduating Seniors and over 2,500 spectators. With mixed emotions of joy, sorrow, and even nostalgia, the Seniors accepted their diplomas and became alumnae of PHS.
